

Press Release

10.15.2008

TEN 29 DESIGN WINS NATIONAL GRAPHIC DESIGN AWARD.

Ten 29 Design, a Cleveland-based graphic design and communications firm has been recognized with a 2008 American Design Award. The national competition honors outstanding new work of all kinds across all media and receives more than 10,000 entries, with only about 15% receiving awards.

Ten 29 Design received an award for a logo design created for Health Insights, LLC. Horsham, Pa.

"We're thrilled to showcase some of our work nationally," said Kelly Frye, Ten 29 Design owner/creative director. "It reflects the caliber of clients we serve, who trust our vision and allow us to do great work."

Ten 29 Design has a broad range of clients and specializes in developing communications support for pharmaceutical and other health care companies.

...

The American Graphic Design Awards competition is sponsored by new Page Corporation, the largest printing paper manufacturer in North America, located in Miamisburg, Ohio. Winners will be presented in the Awards Annual of Graphic Design USA magazine, a 300-page edition, published in December.

Ten 29 Design creates communications for a large variety of clients including local and national accounts.

For more information about this topic, please contact Kelly Frye. Thank you.

Follow us + Tweet.